

NOTICE OF REPEAL

ALCOHOL MINIMUM UNIT PRICE

Effective from 1 March 2025

The Northern Territory Government has repealed the alcohol minimum unit price bringing the Territory back in alignment with other Australian jurisdictions.

Territory businesses can set their own competitive prices from 1 March 2025.

A range of measures remain in place to reduce alcohol harm, including the Banned Drinker Register and Police Auxiliary Licensing Inspectors.

For more information, contact Licensing NT

dth.nt.gov.au/floor-price

